1. ANON. The Canadian Guide Book, With A Map Of The Province. Montreal: Armour & Ramsay, 1849. First edition. 12mo., orig. blue blindstamped cloth, 153, (3)pp. With a large folding map 'A Map of Canada, Compiled from the Latest Authorities' by Edward Staveley bound in at rear. The map is browned along the folds with tears running down two of the vertical folds; the inner front hinge is cracked, there is an unobtrusive but peculiar repair to the bottom inch of the spine, which has been sewn with black thread extending from the spine over the gutter, however, this is still a near fine, unworn copy. TPL 2975, Sabin 10627. This copy bears the signature of George Stuart Buchanan, whose family emigrated from Omagh, County Tyrone to Point Levis, Quebec in 1832. George Stuart Buchanan was born in Point Levis in 1833, where his father, Robert Buchanan, had established a lumber and shipbuilding business. $1,000
2. ANON. History of the Mormons Or, Latter-Day Saints. With Memories of The Life and Death of Joseph Smith, The "American Mahomet." Auburn: Derby and Miller, 1853. "Second Thousand" (so stated). 8vo., orig. cloth, (viii), 399, (2)pp. ads. Slight foxing, some rubbing, a very good copy. $350
3. ANON. 1891 The People's Almanac A Compilation of Facts and Figures for the Consideration of the Electors of Canada. Prepared as a Supplement to The Gazette Montreal. (Montreal): no publisher, 1891. 8vo., printed wrappers, (48)pp. unpaginated. With illustrations. Wrappers faded and soiled with some writing, spine worn, very good. This appears to be the first of what would be an annual pro-Conservative publication that appeared as a supplement in at least four Canadian newspapers (the Gazette also put out a French-language version). Publication ceased after the 1903 issue. Contains numerous political cartoons and satirical verses, as well as tables of revenue and expenditure, subsidies per province, etc. See inner cover. $850
4. ATCHISON, Charles. A Winter Cruise In Summer Seas "How I Found" Health. Diary of a Two Months' Voyage in the Royal Mail, Steam Packet Company's s.s. Clyde, From Southampton, Through the Brazils To Buenos Aires and Back...Profusely Illustrated with Photographs, and Sketches by Walter W. Buckley. London: Sampson Low, Marston & Company, 1893. "New and Cheaper Edition" (so stated). Tall 8vo., orig. green pictorial cloth, (xxx), 369pp. Inner front hinge cracked, a few dents on rear board, some rubbing and a bit of wear to foot of the spine but certainly a very good copy. The author travels to St. Vincent, Bahia, Rio, and other places en route giving details of the scenery, inhabitants and their customs. See page 12. $350
5. BEADLE, J.H. Life In Utah; Or, The Mysteries and Crimes of Mormonism. Being An Expose of the Secret Rites and Ceremonies of the Latter-Day Saints, With A Full and Authentic History of Polygamy and the Mormon Sect from Its Origin to the Present Time. Toronto: James Spencer, 1872. Canadian edition. 8vo., orig. cloth, (xx), (21)-415pp. A couple of nicks at the head of the spine otherwise near fine. $200
6. BEECHEY, Captain F.W. (Frederick William). Narrative Of A Voyage To The Pacific And Beering's Strait, To Co-Operate With The Polar Expeditions: Performed By His Majesty's Ship Blossom, Under The Command of Captain F.W. Beechey... In The Years 1825, 26, 27, 28. London: Henry Colburn And Richard Bentley, 1831. In two volumes. First octavo edition. With a presentation inscription reading "With the Author's Best Comp.", probably in the hand of a clerk. (Preceded by the quarto "Admiralty Edition" published the same year). 8vo., recently rebound with brown

morocco spines, marble boards, raised bands, single gilt decoration in the compartments, xxvi, (1), 472; iv, 452pp. With 3 maps (two folding) and 23 engraved plates. Some foxing to the plates but otherwise a fine copy of this important work. Arctic Bibliography 1228, TPL 1476, Sabin 4347, Hill p.93. "Captain Beechey, near Point Barrow, Alaska and Sir John Franklin had arrived within fifty leagues of each other when the latter was compelled by weather to return. Beechey's book is one of the most valuable of modern voyages and relates to extensive travels to Pitcairn Island, the Tuamotu Archipelago, the Society Islands and Tahiti, Alaska, Hawaii, Macao, Okinawa and the coast of California. His book provides an important account of Monterey and San Francisco before the American conquest and gives his impressions of the missionaries in San Francisco. Beechey describes the Eskimos of the north and relates his meeting with John Adams, the last survivor of the mutiny on the Bounty, who gave Beechey a lengthy account. In the course of this voyage, Beechey discovered several islands in the Pacific." (Hill) "Beechey, who accompanied Franklin's and Parry's expeditions to the Arctic in 1818 and 1819, here records his own expedition via the Pacific to Bering Strait, 1825-1828, to afford assistance if possible, to Parry and Franklin, and then exploring in the Canadian Arctic." (TPL) See page 9. $8,500

7. BOUCHETTE, Joseph. A Topographical Description Of The Province of Lower Canada, With Remarks Upon Upper Canada, And On The Relative Connexion of Both Provinces With The United States of America. First edition. 4to., rebound in early 20th century tan half calf, marble boards, raised bands, leather label, (xvi), 640, lxxxvi, (2)pp. With an engraved frontispiece portrait, 7 engraved plates, 8 plans (including 4 folding), and 2 tables (1 folding). Bookplate, signature at the bottom of the titlepage, otherwise a fine copy. TPL 1031 (imperfect), Lande 1591, Sabin 6849. $2,500
8. BROMME, Traugott. Nordamerika's Bewohner, Schonheiten und Naturschatze in Allgemeinen und die brittischen Besitzungen insbesondere geschildert von Traugott Bromme. Stuttgart: J. Scheible's Buchhandlung, 1839. Tall 8vo., cont. half calf, marble boards, 796pp. With an engraved titlepage, frontispiece and 38 plates. The majority of the plates contain more than one view. Bookplate, some light wear, small split at the top of the upper hinge but certainly a very good copy. TPL 7517, Sabin 8212. $650
9. BUCKINGHAM, James S. Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, And The Other British Provinces In North America, With A Plan Of National Colonization. London: Fisher, Son & Co., nd. (1843). First edition. Tall 8vo., orig. green cloth, (16), 540, 4pp. ads. With a folding map and plates. Mark from removal of a bookplate, spine very slightly faded otherwise a fine copy. TPL 2351, Sabin 8895. See page 10. $400
10. BURNEY, James. A Chronological History Of North-Eastern Voyages Of Discovery; And Of The Early Eastern Navigations Of The Russians. London: Printed by Luke Hansard & Sons... For Payne And Foss And John Murray... 1819. First edition. Tall 8vo., later 19th century half calf, marble boards, raised bands, single gilt stamp in compartments, leather spine label, viii, 310pp. With two folding maps. A fine copy. Hill I: p.41. "Burney had originally intended to annex an account of the maritime discoveries of the Russians as a supplement to his Chronological History of the Discoveries in the South Seas and this book contains his important researches on that subject. The work contains accounts of voyages by the English, Dutch, and Danes in search of the Northeast Passage to Japan and China; the Russian invasion of Kamchatka and discovery of lands in the Arctic seas; various Russian voyages and

explorations in eastern Siberia; invasion of the Kurile Islands... voyage of Vitus Bering and Alexei Chirikov to America... Captain Cook on the northwest of America and through the Bering Strait... (Hill) See page 9. $8,500

11. BURTON, Richard F. Explorations Of The Highlands Of The Brazil; With A Full Account Of The Gold And Diamond Mines. Also, Canoeing Down 1500 Miles Of The Great Rivers Sao Francisco, From Sabara To The Sea. London: Tinsley Brothers, 1869. In two volumes. First edition. Tall 8vo., recently rebound in black half calf, marble boards, raised bands, x, 443; viii, 478pp. With an additional titlepage in each volume with pictorial vignettes, engraved frontispiece in each volume, two folding maps. Titlepage of volume one is mounted with loss affecting the "H" in "Highlands", the "C" in "Canoeing", entire "Tinsley", and "Bros" in Brothers, blindstamps on engraved titles, otherwise a near fine copy. See rear inner cover. $1,650
12. BURTON, Richard F. A Mission To Gelele, King Of Dahome. With Notices Of The So Called "Amazons," The Grand Customs, The Yearly Customs, The Human Sacrifices, The Present State Of The Slave Trade, And The Negro's Place In Nature. London: Tinsley Brothers, 1864. In two volumes. Second edition. Tall 8vo., orig. purple cloth with a small pictorial gilt decoration on the upper covers, (xviii), 386; vi, 413pp. With a frontispiece in each volume. Faint rubberstamp on the halftitle of volume one and the first page of text of volume two, wear to the spine ends, some rubbing but certainly a very good copy. See rear inner cover. $1,500
13. BUTLER (KEMBLE), Fanny. Journal. By Frances Anne Butler. Philadelphia: Carey, Lea & Blanchard, 1835. In two volumes. First U.S. edition. 8vo., orig. purple cloth, paper spine labels, 222, (12); 218, (36)pp. Spines and perimeter of boards faded to tan, otherwise an about fine copy. Howes 1051. Fanny Kemble (1809-1893) celebrated actress, novelist and poet born into the famous theatrical Kemble family. Her father was part owner and manager of Covent Garden Theatre; her aunt, Sarah Kemble Siddons, won acclaim as "the greatest actress the world has ever seen." Fanny Kemble first appeared at Covent Garden in 1829 where she won instant acclaim. While on tour in the U.S. in 1834 she married Pierce Butler, a wealthy Georgia planter. Discovering that her husband's wealth came from slave-operated plantations, Kemble, a committed libertarian was horrified with the fact her husband owned slaves. Butler never understood Fanny's ethical stand and they were later embroiled in an ugly and bitter divorce that deprived Fanny of both her children and her home. The above work provides an account of her travels in the United States and it was met with severe reviews both in England and America. "This uncomfortably gauche work's indiscretions offended numerous prominent Americans." $500
14. (BYRON, John). The Narrative of The Honourable John Byron... Containing An Account of the Great Distresses Suffered by Himself and His Companions On the Coast of Patagonia, From the Year 1740, Till Their Arrival In England, 1746. With A Description of St. Jago De Chili, and The Manners and Customs of the Inhabitants. Also A Relation of the Loss of the Wager Man of War... London: Printed for S. Baker and G. Leigh... 1768. First edition. 8vo., recently rebound with a green morocco spine, marble boards, leather spine labels, (2) leaves, viii, (1)-257, (258) blank. With an engraved frontispiece. Stain on the verso of the frontispiece not penetrating through (except for a faint line in the upper margin), slight offsetting of frontispiece on title, contemporary name on the title, scattered foxing, short tears in the lower margins of pp. 32, 100, 101, and a small chip out of the margin of p.201 none affecting text, in fact a near fine copy. Sabin 9130, Cox II: p.281, Hill pp.41-42. "Byron was a midshipman aboard the Wager, which was wrecked on an island off the Chilean coast. He describes the privations endured by the survivors who remained with Captain David Cheap. They were made prisoners by the Indians and turned over to the Spanish authorities. This narrative supplied his grandson, Lord Byron, the poet, with many particulars for the shipwreck in Canto II of Don Juan. Byron, known as 'foul weather Jack' commanded a voyage round the world in the Dolphin from 1764-1766. He was later governor of Newfoundland and became an admiral in 1775." (Hill) See rear inner cover. $2,750

15. (CALDERON De La BARCA, Madame). Life In Mexico During A Residence of Two Years In That Country. With a Preface by W.H. Prescott. London: Chapman and Hall, 1843. First English edition. (first published Boston: 1843—2 volumes.) Tall 8vo., cont. half calf, cloth boards, leather spine label, xiv, 437pp. Name, a bit of fading to the top of the upper cover, some minor rubbing in fact a near fine copy. Sabin 9888; BAL 16338, Robinson p.233. "This is the earliest and most balanced first-hand account of Mexico to be written by a woman. Its author, Frances Erskine Inglis, was born in Edinburgh but grew up in France and Boston, where her mother and nine siblings moved after her father's death, and where Frances was to meet the dashing Spanish Minister to the United States, Don Angelo Calderon de la Barca. They married in 1838 and travelled to Mexico to take up his post as Spanish Ambassador. Frances toured Mexico extensively during her two years' stay there; lived through two revolutions, and by 1842 was able to give a graphic description of the country's social, political and topographical landscape, so clear in fact, that the American army used her book as a guide during the campaign against Mexico in 1847." (Robinson p.233) $650

16. CARVER, J. (Jonathan). Travels Through The Interior Parts of North America, In The Years 1766, 1767, and 1768, By... Illustrated With Copper Plates, Coloured... To which is added, Some Account Of The Author, And A Copious Index. London: Printed for C. Dilly... 1781. Third and best edition. Tall 8vo., full contemporary calf, raised bands, leather spine label, (26), xvi, (22), (17)-543, (1), (20)pp. index. With two folding partly coloured maps, five plates (as called for) including four in colour. "The Account of the Author" is bound out of order between the end of "Contents" (xvi) and the first page of text (17), some browning to the edges of the front endpaper, a touch of foxing to titlepage, binding slightly rubbed but in fact this is a near fine copy. Sabin 11184, Field 251, Howes C215. This third edition has an added "Account of the Author" and a coloured plate depicting "The Tobacco Plant." "The journal of Capt. Carver's travels among the tribes of Indians around the upper great lakes occupies pp. 1 to 180; pp. 181-441 are entitled 'Of The Origin, Manners, Customs, Religion and Language of the Indians' of which the last twenty are devoted to a Vocabulary of the Chippeway language. In this division he gives the results of his personal experiences among the Indians he visited, or warred with." (Field) $7,000

17. CHAPPELL, Edward Lieut. Narrative of a Voyage To Hudson's Bay In His Majesty's Ship Rosamond Containing Some Account of The North-Eastern Coast of America And Of The Tribes Inhabiting That Remote Region. London: Printed for J. Mawman... 1817. First edition. Tall 8vo., recently rebound in full brown buckram, (12), 279pp. With a folding map at the front, four plates bound in after the list of engravings, and two small illustrations in the text. Some foxing to plates and map, otherwise a near fine in a plain binding. TPL 976, Lande 1117, Sabin 12005. $950

18. COPWAY, George. Reflections of a Forest Life or the Life and Travels of... or Kah-Ge-Ga-Kah-Bowh, Chief of the Ojibway Nation. London: Henry Lea, (185-?). 8vo., orig. pictorial boards recently relaid and rebacked with new cloth spine, xii, 248pp.

Original paper panels somewhat chipped and soiled at edges, relaid on new cloth-backed boards, very good. This work was originally published under the title The Life, History, and Travels of Kah-ge-ga-gah-bowh... in 1847. It was so popular that there were six editions published in one year. In 1850, a slightly revised edition with additional speeches and letters was published under two different titles—The Life, Letters, and Speeches of Kah-ge-ga-gah-bowh, and Recollections of a Forest Life. The Sabin entry for the 1850 Henry Lea edition under this title (CF Sabin 16720) lists the pagination as 256pp. We believe this is an early reprint of that edition. $500

19. CROCKETT, David. The Life of Martin Van Buren... With A Concise History of the Events That Occasioned His Unparalleled Elevation;... Philadelphia: Robert Wright, 1835. First edition. 8vo., orig. light blue cloth, (210), 6pp. ads dated "June 1835." Lacking the printed paper spine label, some foxing on the first few leaves, spine slightly faded but otherwise a very nice, unworn copy. Sabin 17567, Howes C-899. $400

20. DALLAS, R. C. The History of the Maroons, From Their Origin to the Establishment of Their Chief Tribe at Sierra Leone; Including the Expedition to Cuba, for the Purpose of Procuring Spanish Chasseurs; and the State of the Island of Jamaica for the Last Ten Years: With a Succinct History of the Island Previous to that Period. London: T. N. Longman and O. Rees, 1803. Two volumes bound in one. First edition. Tall thick 8vo., cont. half leather, marble boards, raised bands, single gilt decoration in compartments, cxiv, 359, (xii), 514, (1)p. errata, (1)p. ad. With frontispieces and two folding maps. Two small tears in the larger folding map, some foxing (affecting plates), still a nice copy. Sabin 18322. See rear inner cover. $1,250

21. DIXON, William Hepworth. White Conquest. London: Chatto and Windus, 1876. In two volumes. First edition. Tall 8vo., cont. half calf, marble boards, raised bands, leather labels, viii, 356; vi, 373pp. Spines faded, some wear to extremities but otherwise very good. William Hepworth Dixon (1821-1879) historian and traveller. Dixon's literary career began with regular contributions to the Athenaeum and the Daily News. He published a startling series of articles on "The Literature of the Lower Orders" which probably suggested Mayhew's "London Labour and the London Poor." Dixon also did a series of descriptive articles on London prisons. An ardent traveller, he published several works as the result of his journeys. In the above, Dixon begins with the missions in California, then moves to the "Bay of San Francisco," noting that "in California there are five white men to two white women." He comments on the brisk demand for wives amongst the miners and settlers around San Francisco. From here he moves on to Salt Lake City. There is an interesting chapter headed "Red Mormonism" which describes the similarities between the beliefs of the Mormons and the Indians. Of course he also discusses the issue of polygamy. See rear inner cover. $500

22. (EASTMAN, Edward). Seven and Nine Years Among the Camanches And Apaches. An Autobiography. Jersey City, NJ: Published by Clark Johnson M.D., 1873. First edition. 8vo., orig. orange cloth lettered in black, 309, (1)p. Illustrated. Some light foxing otherwise a fine copy. $350

23. FORSTER, John (Johann) Reinhold. A Letter From Mr. John Reinhold Forster, F.R.S. to William Watson, M.D. giving some Account of the Roots used by the Indians, in the Neighbourhood of Hudson's Bay, to dye Porcupine Quills. No. 2, Somerset Stable-yard, Strand, Jan. 16, 1772. pp. 54-59. (detached from Vol. LXII of the Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society, 1773). BOUND WITH: FORSTER, John (Johann) Reinhold. Account of Several Quadrupeds from Hudson's

Bay. By... Read May 21, 1772. pp. 370-381. (detached from Vol. LXII of the Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society, 1773). BOUND WITH: FORSTER, John (Johann) Reinhold. Account of the Birds sent from Hudson's Bay; with Observations relative to their Natural History; and Latin Descriptions of some of the most uncommon. By... Read June 18-25, 1772. pp. 382-433. (detached from Vol. LXII of the Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society, 1773). Arctic Bibliography 5158. Tall 8vo., rebound in the 20th century with a brown morocco spine, cloth boards, gilt lettering on the spine, pagination as noted above. Some slight rubbing on the spine but otherwise near fine. See page 9. $7,000

24. (FOSTER, Stephen). Susannah Don't You Cry For Me. Single sheet measuring 9  $\frac{3}{4}$ " x 7  $\frac{1}{4}$ " headed with an English (Canadian?) Coat of Arms. NP: no publisher, probably circa 1850-70. Some very light dampstaining but in fact fine. This is a variant version of Foster's classic tune, first written in 1847. Foster did not have it immediately printed or copyrighted. This version has six verses, the original has three, with verses 1, 3, and 4 of our copy matching fairly closely with the original. There is slight variation in the wording, this version is particularly heavy in a Southern dialect and spelled phonetically ("wid" for "with). Given the date Foster wrote the piece, the coat of arms is odd as this version was discontinued in 1801—used by the first of the three Georges and then changed. The only other copy we have seen a record of is held by Brown University, who call it "possibly an English imprint." We believe it is more likely of Canadian origin given that we have found no record in English institutions, and the heavy Southern dialect would likely have been incomprehensible to an Englishman. A rare broadside with only one recorded example. See inner cover. \$1,250
25. FRANCHERE, Gabriel. Narrative of a Voyage To The Northwest Coast of America In The Years 1811, 1812, 1813 And 1814 Or The First American Settlement On The Pacific By... Translated and Edited by J.V. Huntington. New York: Redfield, 1854. First edition in English, preceded by an edition in French published in 1820. 8vo., orig. green cloth, 376, (8)pp. ads. With 3 plates (including the frontispiece). Touch of rubbing to the spine tip otherwise about fine. Sabin 25432, Howes F310. $1,000
26. (FULLER, William Henry). Flapdoodle. A Political Encyclopedia and Manual for Public Men. Edited by an Ex-Minister. Illustrated by (John) Bengough. Toronto: Printed for The Publisher, 1881. 8vo., orig. printed wrappers, 28pp. About fine. $200
27. GASS, Patrick. Journal of the Voyages and Travels of a Corps of Discovery, Under the command of Capt. Lewis and Capt. Clarke of the army of the United States, from the mouth of the River Missouri through the interior parts of North America to the Pacific Ocean, During the Years 1804, 1805, and 1806... Philadelphia: Printed For Mathew Carey... 1811. Third edition. (first published in 1807). Tall 12mo., full contemporary calf, leather spine label, (x), (11)-262pp. With six plates including the frontispiece. Pages browned with some foxing, corner torn from rear free endpaper, binding rubbed with one inch chipped off the top of the spine but still a very good copy. Howes G77, Sabin 26741, Shaw & Shoemaker 22891. "Earliest first-hand narrative of the Lewis and Clark expedition, preceding the official account seven years."(Howes) $7,000
28. GOVERNMENT OF ONTARIO. Emigration To Canada The Province of Ontario; Its Soil, Climate, Resources, Institutions, Free Grant Lands, & c., & c. for the Information of Intending Emigrants. Issued by the Authority of... Toronto: Printed by Hunter, Rose & Co., 1869. Tall 8vo., orig. printed wrappers, 34pp. With a folding map. Near fine. See inner cover. $300

29. HALL, Captain Basil. Extracts From A Journal Written On The Coasts of Chili, Peru, and Mexico, in the Years 1820, 1821, 1822 by... Edinburgh: Archibald Constable and Co... 1824. In two volumes. Second edition (so stated). 8vo., later 19th-century half calf, marble boards, raised bands, xviii, 372; (xii), 288, 65pp. appendix. With a folding map at the front of volume one. Folding map foxed, boards somewhat rubbed but otherwise a near fine set. Sabin 29178. Basil Hall (1788-1844) entered the navy in 1802, and in 1816 commanded the brig "Lyra," which accompanied Lord Amherst to China. He was made post-captain in 1817, and from 1820 till 1822 was stationed on the Pacific coast of America. In 1827-28 he travelled in the United States and Canada, and afterward visited various parts of Europe. $600
30. HEARN, Lafcadio. Two Years In The French West Indies. New York: Harper & Brothers, 1890. First edition. 8vo., orig. light green decorated cloth, (432), (6)pp. ads. With illustrations. Bookplate, signature of Cyril Clemens (a cousin of Samuel Clemens) on the front pastedown otherwise a fine copy in a custom slipcase. BAL 7920. "When Hearn left New Orleans in 1887, he headed for New York, where he met with Henry Alden at Harper's, who immediately commissioned him to write a series of stories about the West Indies. In the beginning of June, Hearn boarded the Barracouta and was on his way. During a three-month sojourn in Martinique, he found, 'the climate was simply heaven on earth, no thieves, no roughs, no snobs, everything primitive and morally pure. Confound fame, wealth, reputation and splendour! Leave them all, give up New Orleans, these things are superfluous in the West Indies, obsolete nuisances.' After only three months, he was back in New York, but only for one disastrous week in which problem after problem piled up on him. He returned to Martinique immediately, staying there for two years until May 1889 when he returned to New York to put the finishing touches on Youma, to pull together the stories for Two Years in the French West Indies and to review the proofs of Chita before it appeared in book form." $700
31. (HEARNE and TURNOR). TYRRELL, J. B. (editor). Journals Of Samuel Hearne And Philip Turnor. Edited With Introduction And Notes by... Toronto: Champlain Society, 1934. 1 of 550 copies. Sm. 4to., orig. red cloth, xviii, 611, xii pp. With illustrations and folding maps including a large folding chart in a pocket at rear. Spine a bit darkened, lower corner bumped but still a near fine copy of a scarce title. See page 10. $1,000
32. HIND, Henry Youle. Narrative of The Canadian Red River Exploring Expedition of 1857 And Of The Assiniboine an Saskatchewan Exploring Expedition of 1858. London: Longmans, Green, Longman and Roberts, 1860. In two volumes. First edition. Tall 8vo., orig. rust cloth, xx, 494; xvi, 472pp. Volume one has 14 colour plates and 5 maps/plans and numerous illustrations in the text, volume two has 5 plates (2 of which are in colour), 3 maps/plans. Bookplate, some minor wear to the bottom of the spines but still near fine. TPL 3820, Sabin 31934, Abbey 630. "A scientific expedition, sponsored by Britain and the Canadian colony, was conducted in 1857-1858 by Henry Youle Hind, starting from Upper Canada. Born in Nottingham, England, in 1823, Hind also studied in several places in Europe before immigrating to Toronto in 1846. He taught chemistry and geology at Trinity College when the Geological Survey of Canada asked him to accompany an expedition whose mandate was similar to Palliser's but somewhat more modest. He left Toronto at the end of July 1857 with a former fur trader, George Gladman, and an engineer, Simon James Dawson. For the next three months, after having examined the length of the Kaministiquia to the Red River, the explorers conducted surveys in the Red and Assiniboine river valleys. In 1858, Hind and Dawson alone made observations in the Assiniboine, Souris,

Qu'Appelle and South Saskatchewan river valleys. Hind was not noted for the quality of his work as a geologist, but rather for his general observations. His work, Narrative of the Canadian Red River Exploring Expedition of 1857.... published in 1860, is still a classic description of the Prairies before they were colonized." (LAC) See page 10.

Tall 8vo.,

recently rebound with a brown calf spine, marble boards, raised bands, gilt compartments, leather spine label, viii, (248)pp. With two folding maps. Rubberstamp reading "Admiralty Library" on the titlepage, small repair to the verso of one map (no loss). This is, in fact, a fine copy with an interesting association. Arctic Bib. 14097, TPL 2868, Sabin 67428, Field 1253. "The narrative gives an account of the author's boat journey north from Churchill along the west coast of Hudson Bay to Repulse Bay, portage across Rae Isthmus and exploration of southern Committee Bay; the wintering at Repulse Bay, the spring journeys tracing the shores northwestward around Committee Bay, Simpson Peninsula, Pelly Bay and its islands to the James Ross Peninsula... Descriptions of the ice in Hudson, Repulse and Committee Bays, the storms, snow, wildlife, and the customs, hunting implements, boats, etc. of the Eskimos, with notes on geographic features, and on details of wintering, snowhouse building, snowblindness, & etc." (AB) John Tuzo Wilson (1908-1993) was a Canadian geophysicist and geologist who achieved worldwide acclaim for his contributions to the theory of plate tectonics. His notations on the verso of the endpaper explain that the copy of this work in the library of the Royal Geographic Society contains marginal annotations by Rae, and that he (Wilson) has copied Rae's annotations into this copy. Wilson has designated Rae's annotations by using the initials "JTW" at the end of marginal annotations copied from the RG Society copy. There are approx. 20 of Rae's comments inserted by Wilson into the text and the margins which are mostly brief and corrective; that is changing a single word or correcting errors. There are a few notes which expand on the text and one on p.168 in which Rae expresses his displeasure at the published book stating "This report about the mode of building the oven is quite incorrect in fact the whole book is altered from the original manuscript that I scarcely know it again." (Johh Gabriel). Narrative of a five years' expedition against the Revolted Negroes of Surinam, in Guiana and on the Wild Coast of South America; from the year 1772, to 1777: elucidating the History of that Country and describing its Productions, Viz. Quadrupedes, Birds, Fishes... London: Printed for J. Johnson... 1796. In two volumes. First edition. 4to., full contemporary calf, which has been professionally rebacked with new spines after the period, raised bands, gilt, leather labels, xviii, 407, (408 blank), (7)pp; iv, 404, (7)pp. With 80 plates including 16 plates engraved by Wm. Blake; three folding maps. Plate 55, "March through the Swamp" has been supplied from a later edition (1818) and the page though not the image is slightly smaller, this copy has been rebacked after the period, some foxing to plates, mostly in the margins, but still a near fine copy of this important work. John Gabriel Stedman (1744-1797) was a distinguished British-Dutch soldier and author. Due to the poor financial circumstance of his family, Stedman accepted a commission as a lieutenant in General John Stuart's "Scots Brigade" in 1760. In 1772 Stedman resigned from the brigade in order to volunteer for a military expedition to Surinam (Dutch Guiana). The purpose of the expedition was to settle the uprisings of the colonies African slaves in what would become known as the First Boni Maroon War. For the next five years Stedman served the corps in Surinam. He chronicled his experiences and observations in the above work, partially illustrated by William Blake and Francesco Bartolozzi and is considered to be a "seminal indictment against slavery as well as an invaluable resource on the daily life and culture of Surinam." See page 12. $8,500

74. THE CANADA ROSE. London: Joseph Myers & Co./Hamburg: C. Adler's Printing Establishments, nd. (185-?) A very fine copy without the printed advert and lacking the printed envelope. Rare. 1 sheet folded (16pp) illustrated on both sides, including a color printed design of a rose. The Canada Rose consists of one page folded four times into a triangle shape as one would to cut a paper snowflake, with cuts to form the shape of the rose with leaves. Printed in shades of pink and green. When folded the printed rose appears on the front and back and measures approx. 5 1/4" x 3". When completely unfolded, it is a circular shape and measures 10 1/4" at its widest point. Each side consists of eight sections, and all but the two with the printed rose contain two engravings. In total there are 28 engravings, 14 large and 14 small depicting scenes from Canada West and Canada East. There are approx. 20 views of Canada West (8 large and 12 small) and 8 views of Canada East (6 large and 2 small). The large views of Canada West include Brockville (1), Toronto (5), Ottawa (1) and London (1). The small views consist of London (6) and Toronto (6). We have only located 2 other copies in Canadian institutions, both of which include a printed envelope with a duplicate of one of the engravings and a printed title "Part II." As the engravings match this copy, we can determine that it is Part II. Given the title on the advert and the details of the known copies we assume that part one would be Montreal, but there seems to be no copy recorded in Canada. $1,250
